TO THE READER.

THis Catalogue consists of the Library of the Reverend and Learned Mr. John Lloyd, sometime Minister of North-Mimmes in Hertfordshire; as also of the Historical and Philological Library of the Worshipful Sir Thomas Raymond, Knight, late one of the Justices of the Kings-Bench Court: In the perusal of which it is obvious to remark what a curious Collection he had made, and almost compleated, of the general Histories abroad, and of our Monkish Historians at home, with a Collection of the particular Lives of the Kings of England, as also of Chronicles old and new. I might also hint at that great variety of Dictionaries and Glossaries, that present themselves in the Catalogue. All which considered, without a further Preamble, do sufficiently recommend them to all knowing and Bookish Gentlemen, to buy upon this occasion, what cannot be easily found, or indeed procured, when most passionately desired.

This SALE will begin on Monday, Decemb. 3. 1683, at the Auction-House in Ave-Mary-Lane, over against the Black Swan, near Ludgate-Street, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning till Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon to Six, and there continue daily till all the Books be sold.

Conditions

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids most is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books so bought, is to be pay'd by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the Place where they are sold, where, upon Payment thereof, the Book or Books shall be delivered for the Month aforesaid.

IV. The Books will be exposed to view for one whole Week before the time of Sale, being generally inviting, both as to their Editions and Binding, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two to Six in the Evening.
